O. D. BAKER CANDIDATE FOR STATE CONTROLLER

FRIENDS HERE EXPECT EARLY ANNOUNCEMENT FROM REPRESENTATIVE.

O. D. Baker of Gause, for the past four years representative from the flotorial district of which Milam county is a part, will in the near future enter the race for Comptroller of the state. This became known here this week when the representative from Milam, Lee and Burleson counties, confered with friends regarding the race.

Already aid has come to his candidacy from friends all over Texas and he expects a strong line up for him in Milam county. Mr. Baker has been urged to make this race by many influential men in public affairs from over the state.

If Mr. Baker enters the race for comptroller the field will be left open for a candidate for the office of representative in the flotorial district composed of three counties of Milam, Lee and Burleson. The field is also open in the race for representative from Milam county caused by the death of the late Col. Ike Looney.

Prominent among those who have been mentioned for the latter place are Hon. C. M. Beard of Milano, former representative: Moulton Cobb who was a candidate in 1922 and Hon. T. S. Henderson, Jr., of Cameron.

The next two weeks will undoubtedly see many developments in the political arena.

VINCE LUCAS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION HERE

SUBMITS CANDIDACY ON RECORD MADE IN LAW ENFORCEMENT AND SERVICE.

Vince Lucas, for the past two years city marshal of the city of Cameron, has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election to a second term in office at the white man's democratic primary to be held in Cameron on Tuesday February 5, 1924.

In submitting his candidacy for the consideration of the people Mr. Lucas offers his record as a peace officer and head of the police departments of the city for the past two years. If elected again he promises to render the same faithful service and to be as firm in the enforcement of the law as during the past two years.

Mr. Lucas in dicussing his candidacy for re-election said that he would not outline in detail what had been accomplished during the past two years but rather wishes to leave the judgment in these matters to the good people of Cameron who placed him in office and charged him with the duties of City Marshal under the laws.

Mr. Lucas was elected by the largest majority ever given any man in the race for marshal. He has been uncompromising at every turn and has yielded to none in the discharge of his duties as city marshal.

In submitting his candidacy Mr. Lucas asks the earnest co-operation of the people and appeals to the good women of Cameron and all of the people everywhere to support him in his campaign for re-election.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

The January meeting of the Methodist Men's Brotherhood will be held in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening January 16th. 1924 at 7:30 p. m.

President Oxsheer Smith and Program Chairman Thos. A. Fisher, have left no means unturned to sesure an excellent program for the evening but the veil of mystery must still veil many features.

Dr. John Keen Advertising manager of the Austin Statesman, formerly connected with both S. M. U. of Dallas and University of Texas at Austin will deliver an inspirational addres.

The ladies of Mrs. Charles Price's circle will serve the banquet.

THE PEACE PRIZE.

It is possible that history will record the Bok Peace offer as a potent force for peace, even if the winning plan is never adopted.

The donor of the prize has stated that should there be no further result; should no plan fit for use come forth, and the prize be given for no result, the prize would yet have accomplished its purpose, in that it has focused the atention of millions of thinking Americans, and almost as many Euorpeans, upon the problem of peace. Teach enough people to think steadily about peace and how to have it, and you get it, in other words!

Who will be the philanthropist to come forward with a hundred thousand-dollar or half million-dollar offer, for the best practicable plan to eliminate illiteracy from the United States, and bring the subject of education so powerfully, so potently, so vividly before our national consciousness, that we will have the schools we ought to have, the government aid for education we ought to have, the educational opportunities for all our young people we ought to have?

Mr. Bok has pointed the way. He has shown what a constructive imagination can do. He fired the popular vision with his fortune in a prize, and received perhaps, more free advertising for the plan than ten times its total sum could have bought.

What will work for peace will work for education! Some wealthy man with as much vision for the future, as it must be effected by education, as Mr. Bok has for the future, as it must be effected by peace or war, can do something for this great nation it has not as yet been able to do for itself—cement the national consciousness of educational needs into a mighty unit which will forever sweep illiteracy form between the oceans!

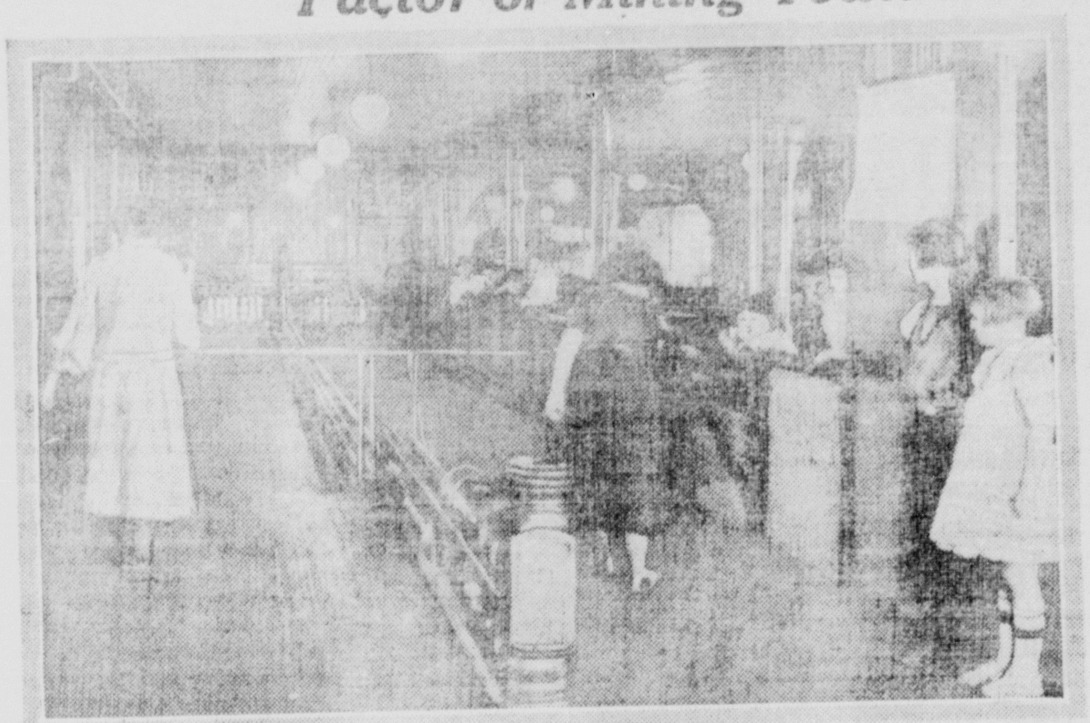
Miners' Wives Take To Bowling And Tennis; Recreation Big Factor of Mining Town's Life



Interest in athletic amusements is not confined to the young women in schools, colleges, or city clubs, but is constantly gaining ground in mining communities, according to a report gathered for the National Coal Association from bituminous mining regions. The chief interest among the women of the mining communities, says this report, is in the outdoor type of sports; but the development of community recreation buildings is adding devotees to bowling, the above picture being typica of "women's hours" in the alleys, in a town not far from where Jack Dempsey was once a "pin-boy".

Among the men the most popular game, as in the case of most American communities, is baseball, but reports indicate a growing interest among the younger generation of miners' wives in tennis. In one typical mining region, where the mining companies have had to construct the entire community, eighteen towns were found to have 24 tennis courts open for everybody who wishes to play. These courts, like the bowling alleys, were constructed at the expense of the companies, and teams representing a community are becoming more common each year. It was found in some other mine communities that the women favored croquet as an outdoor sport, while the card-playing fad had "as much popularity as elsewhere."

In connection with community recreational activities, the report says, there is scarcely a town in the entire district surveyed which does not have a community Christmas tree, the companies heading the list of contributors for the entertainment which forms a part of the celebration.

The recreational development is just one phase of a wholesale awakening on the part of the mine operators in the last few years to the importance of surroundings which will make for healthy and contented workers. And the conclusion of the investigators who made their report was that "Social and recreational life in the mining town is equal to, and more often superior to that of the small independent town of the same population."

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

RAPID GROWTH HAS COME TO BAPTISTS

75 MILLION CAMPAIGN HAS LENT STRENGTH TO EVERY DEPARTMENT OF WORK

RESULTS IN SOUTH NOTED

Home and State Missions, Schools, Orphanages, Hospitals and Relief Report Marked Advances Under Forward Movement

DR. B. D. GRAY,
ern Baptist Convention
Secretary Home Mission Board South-

Suggesting the growth which the Baptist 75 Million Campaign has brought to the general work of Southern Baptists, it is reported by the general headquarters of the movement that during the four years that have intervened since the Campaign was inaugurated in 1919, the denomination has gained 57 district associations, 881 active ministers, 3,068 local churches, 3,287 Sunday schools with 459,223 pupils, 8,688 Young People's Unions with 233,917 members, and 7,094 Woman's Missionary Union organizations, and baptized 762,880 persons. At the same time the churches have given $28,776,937 more to missions, Christian education and benevolences than they did during the corresponding period prior to the Campaign, and have increased their investment in local church property by $45,405,118

The larger resources made possible for missions and benevolences through the channels of the Campaign have been responsible for great advances in every form of denominational work, both at home and abroad.

Complete Church Building Fund

Among the outstanding achievements of the Home Mission Board, operating throughout the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention, are noted the completion of its million dollar church building loan fund, the baptism of 173,602 persons, reception into the churches of 277,968 persons, enlistment of 11,772 young people in dedication of their lives to some ...ite form of Christian service, ...ding or improvement of 1,372 ... houses and organization of 435 Baptist churches and 2,598 new Sunday schools.

Practically twice the state mission results have been accomplished in many of the states since the Campaign began as were had for any corresponding period of time prior to that movement.

Southern Baptists own 118 Baptist schools, colleges and seminaries, where nearly 40,000 young people are studying to fit themselves for larger usefulness. The number of students has been greatly increased through the Campaign making possible the larger equipment of the schools, and the investment which that movement has made possible in the schools is equal to about 45 per cent of their total value at the time the Campaign was inaugurated.

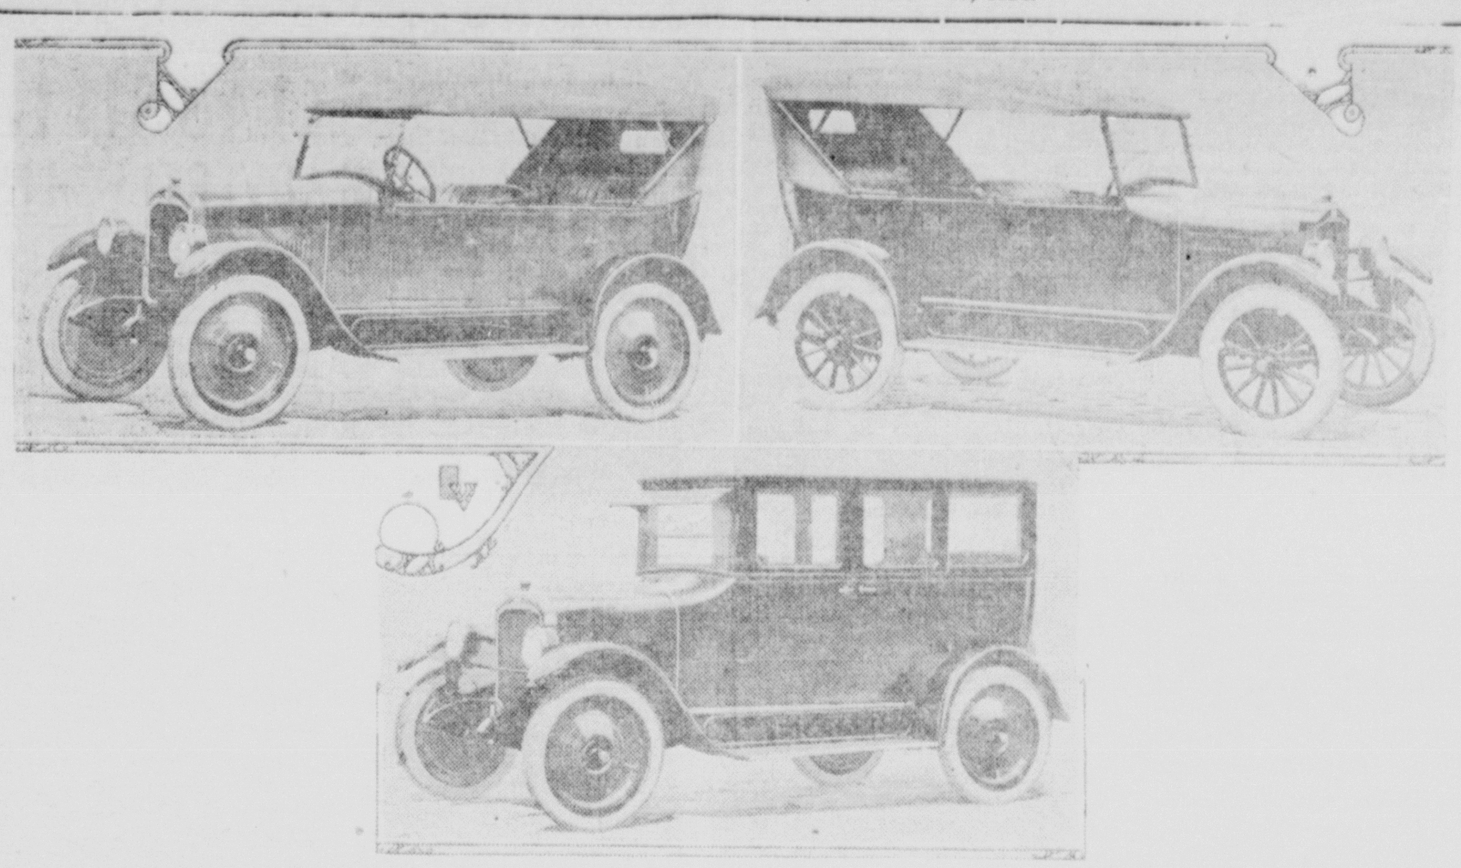
4,000 Orphans Cared For Nearly 4,000 orphan boys and girls are cared for in the 19 Baptist orphanages of the South. Two new orphanages have been provided by the Campaign and practically all of the older ones have been given better equipment by this movement. The equipment is not large enough yet, as 2,000 boys and girls had to be turned away last year because the institutions had no more room.

When the Campaign was launched Southern Baptists had only 13 hospitals. Today that number has been increased to 21. Last year over 47,000 patients were treated in these hospitals, a large number of these being charity patients who could not have had an opportunity to get well except through some such assistance.

The Relief and Annuity Board, serving aged ministers, is now aiding more than 925 beneficiaries and has expended in direct relief since the Campaign began the sum of $414,892,46.

It will require $31,000,000 additional cash to complete the Campaign by the end of the period in 1924, and every effort is being made to enlist all Southern Baptists in having a share in this task.

Herald per year $1.50.



NEW STAR CARS PROVE POPULAR MODELS FOR 1924 AUTO BUYERS.

With the announcement by the Barmore-Shires Motor Company of the new Star Automobile renewed interest has been shown among car buyers and porspective motor owners because of the attractive models shown in the new line of Star Cars. While the price on the Star has been slightly increased the new models incorporate many new features, including a most distinctive new stream line and body effect, giving it the appearance of a much costlier car.

The cars are carried in all models and in colors in regular models besides the sport and special makes. The company here has announced the new models and are therefore in position to demonstrate them to prospective customers. The Star car was the Auto sensation of 1923 because of its features as well as low first cost and operating economy. The new models bid fair to be even greater sensations. The company has the distribution agency for several counties with headquarters in Cameron. The company also handles the Durant and the Cadillac automobiles.

CAMERON WILL VOTE ON BOK PEACE PRIZE PLAN

BALLOT SUBMITTED AND PLAN IN BRIEF OUTLINED FOR CONSIDERATION.

Citizens of Cameron will vote on the proposed peace plan for which Edward W. Bok is offering $100,000 prize. In this issue of the Herald the ballot is printed so that for the convenience of the citizens a ready vote may be cast for or against the plan.

The American Peace Award tonight announced that plan No. 1,469 had been adjudged the best of 22,165 entered in competition for the $100,000 offered by Edward W. Bok, Philadelphia publicist, for the best practical plan which the United States might co-operate in with other nations to prevent war.

In its essence this plan proposes first that the United States immediately should enter the permanent court of international justice, endorsed by the late President Harding and second, without becoming a member of the League of Nations as at present constituted, should offer to co-operate with the league, under certain conditions as a body of mutual counsel.

The identity of the author is unknown to the jury of award and policy committee, except one delegated member. The authorship will not be disclosed until a nation-wide referendum has been taken to determine whether the plan meets with the support of Americans. This probably will not be until early next month.

Fifty thousand dollars is awarded the winner immediately. The rest of the prize goes to him if the country gives the plan its support.

The plan, in brief, as officially submitted to the public by the policy committee, follows:

1. That the United States shall immediately enter the permanent court of international justice, under the conditions stated by Secretary Hughes and President Harding in February, 1923.

2. That without becoming a member of the League of Nations as at present constituted, the United States shall offer to extend co-operation with the league and participate in the work of the league as a body of mutual counsel under conditions, which:

"(A)—Substitute moral force and public opinion for the military and economic force originally implied in articles ten and sixteen.

"(B)—Safeguard the Monroe Doctrine.

"(C"—Accept the fact that the United States will assume no obligations under the Treaty of Versailles except by act of congress.

"(D)—Propose that membership in the league shall be opened to all nations.

"(E)—Provide for the continuing development of international law.

Elihu Root was chairman of the jury of award. Serving with him were:

James Guthrie Harbord, Edward M. House, Ellen Fitz Pendleton, Roscoe Pound, William Allen White, Brand Whitlock.

TEXAS BALLOTS IN MAYFIELD CASE TO BE COUNTED AT CAPITAL.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Unanimous decision was reached today by the senate elections committee to have brought to Washington for formal counting all of the ballots cast in the Texas senatorial election on Nov. 7, 1922, in which Senator Mayfield, democrat, was declared elected over George E. B. Peddy, who is contesting Mr. Mayfield's right to his seat.

The special sub-committee appointed to investigate the election and counsel for Mr. Mayfield and Mr. Peddy will agree on thte method both of collecting and counting the ballots.

Chairman Spencer announced that the petition filed by Mr. Peddy has six main subdivisions.

As outlined by Senator Spencer, the first deals with Senator Mayfield's qualifications for the office of senator; the second with the illegal voters which it is alleged were counted for Mayfield and the legal votes cast for Peddy and not counted for him; the third with the undue advantage and disadvantages which it is alleged occurred in the election; the fourth with allegations relating to the primary election which it is charged was controlled by "secret influences, fraud, money and lawlessness;" the fifth with a charge of general conspiracy in which the Ku Klux Klan is specifically mentioned, and thesixth the disqualifications it is alleged Mayfield possesses for the office.

It was announced that Senator Mayfield had prepared his answer to the petition and that it would be filed in the immediate future.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT AT BROWNSVILLE.

Mrs. Charles D. Lay's numerous friends in the city will read with interest the following notice of her musical activities in her present home, Brownsville.

During her residence in Cameron she took an active part in the work of the Cameron Symphony Club and lent her talent most graciously to the different choirs of the city.

The Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing for the annual concert of the Browsville Music Club, given last night. The program, which consisted entirely of Christmas music, was exceptionally well rendered, the singers showing a knowledge of musical organization. The perfect harmony and blending of voices in chorus effects was one of the noticeable features. The solo numbers and incidental parts, were very good, making the program very well balanced. The difficult selections from Mozart, Wagner, Gounod, and other composers were handled with ease; and the rendition was sympathetic and appreciative.

The solo numbers proved to be features of the program. "Birthday of a King," Neidler, a baritone solo by E. J. Tucker, with chorus, was very pleasing, "O Holy Night," Adam, a soprano solo by Mrs. Tucker, with violin obligato by John McCleary was beautiful, and a bass solo "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," Scott, sung by Captain Keene was well received. John McCleary's violin Solo, "O, Thy Sublime Evening Star," Wagner, and his work in obligato and offeratory parties were fine.

The Brownsville Music Club is directed by Mrs. C. D. Lay. Mrs. Nora Lane is the accompanist for the organization, and her work last night was very good. The entire program showed musical ability and training far above the average amateur organizations.

HEART PARTY.

Last Friday night, the members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church, and their invited guests, met at the home of Mrs.. John Watson for an evening of fun and frolic. Miss Gladys Henry, the director, had planned, with the help of some of the members, a novel and interesting pastime for the evening called the game of Hearts. Five tables were arranged in the comfortable rooms, and small arrows, bearing the number of this on the stems, were passed to those, who wisshed to play. As soon as each participant in the game had found his or her partner, and was seated at his respective table the game began. It consisted of throwing six cubes, each with the word "Hearts" spelled on it. The most successful player was the one who succeeded in throwing the whole word "hearts". For this difficult feat a small red paper heart was awarded and fastened to the arrow.

After an hour or so of playing, hot cocoa and whipped cream were served with individual heart shaped angle food cakes with red icing.

Plate favors were tiny heart shaped boxes filled with candy hearts. Music and the oniza board furnished amusement for the remainder of the evening.

At ten o'clock the guests departed expressing their oppreciation of the lovely time they had had. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Miss Henry and Mrs. H. R. McFayden.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture unproved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Study Of Labor Conditions In Bituminous Coal Fields Shows Farmers Live Well

Mrs. Marion Richardson, Huntington, West Virginia, a prominent member of the League of Business and Professional Women, declares that women should learn the truth about labor conditions in the soft coal fields of the United States. Such knowledge, she says, will clear up a great deal of slanderous propaganda against the bituminous industry.

Mrs. Richardson knows whereof she speaks for she was in charge of preparing the court records of violations on the part of the United Mine Workers of America—of civil rights and criminal law, in many of the coal fields in her state.

"The so called coal problem will be solved when the consumer recognizes the real issue," she points out. "The question is whether union leaders shall have the right to enforce their demands by nation-wide strikes which curtail production and cause the price of coal to soar to exorbitant peaks. Both union and non-union operators agree that it is impossible for the industry to render fair service to the public so long as the miners' organization is allowed to continue its monopolistic policy."

Contrary to the general belief, Mrs. Richardson says that miners live in good houses, their children have the best schools, and good roads and other modern conveniences are the rule and not the exception in the coal fields.

A venire of 150 men was drawn and same has been summoned by the sheriff to be in Cameron on that day from which to select a jury to try this case. All persons so summoned are expected to be on hand on that date as in a case of this character the Judge cannot excuse any veniremen and his excuse must be rendered to the court in person. In the case of State of Texas vs. Herman Rosenthal charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor and given one year in penitentiary, the transcript and statement of facts were sent to the Court of Criminal Appeals, said case having been appealed on the ground that the defendant was over the age of 25 years, and was not allowed to file an application for a suspended sentence, the law being changed by the Legislature so that suspended sentence does not apply in whsky cases where the defendant is over the age of 25 years.

Pedro Costillo also convicted for unlawfull manufacturing intoxicating liquors and given one year was also appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Transcript and statement of facts were sent the Court of Criminal Appeals in this case this week. This makes 7 cases filed in the Court of Criminal appeals from Milam county in the last 60 days.

THE GREAT SCOURGE OF HALF TRUTHS

By JOHN OAKWOOD

A soap-boxer pointed at a great factory. "Who built that factory? Workmen!" he yelled. "Who run the machines? Workmen! Who get the profits? Capitalists!"

* * *

The soap-boxer told a half truth that amounted to a whole lie. His listeners did not know that that particular factory, typical of thousands of others, was a complete refutation of the lie—if only the other half of the truth were told.

* * *

It is true the factory was Capitalized—for a million dollars. The net profits gave annual dividends of 6 per cent, or $60,000 to the stockholders. All that was true.

* * *

But it was also true that the million dollar capital was divided up into ten thousand shares of $100 each. The ownership of these shares was distributed among about one thousand people. Several hundred of them were workmen in the factory. They were saving out of their weekly wages and buying shares on the instalment plan. They were Capitalists.

* * *

It was likewise true that shares were also owned by workmen in other factories, by clerical workers and by small merchants. A good many were also owned by widows and orphans whose modest estates had been wisely invested for them by their bankers. They were Capitalists.

* * *

It was also true that the factory corporation had issued a million dollars in bonds to raise funds to buy the material and pay the wages of workmen to build the factory. These bonds were owned as investments not only by persons of wealth but also by many people of moderate means who had saved out of their wages and salaries. They were Capitalists.

* * *

And it was also true that out of the receipts of the factory, before a cent was taken to pay interest on the bonds, before a penny was used to pay dividends on the stock, a good many dollars were taken to pay wages to the workmen.

FARMERS PAYING EXCESSIVE RATES

BANK RATES THE LOWEST

Department Urges Thrift, Industry and Reliability on Farmers to Win Credit Standing—Bankers Asked to Help.

The cost to farmers of credit from stores is more than 25 per cent when calculated on the basis of a yearly interest rate, while banks charge little more than 6 per cent, says the official report of the Department of Agriculture on its recent survey of farm credit in North Carolina.

"Farmers would profit greatly if they could place themselves in position to borrow from banks and pay their bills with cash," the report continues. "Merchants would be benefited, since they could then give their attention strictly to merchandising and avoid the risk of loss which they now assume. Bankers would also profit, due to the resulting improvement in farmers' financial condition and the increased business which these farmers would give the banks."

A Matter of Habit

Discussing the question as to why farmers rely on store instead of bank credit, the report says that many do so out of habit and do not realize how high the cost of the store credit is.

"There are others, however, who cannot obtain credit from banks," it goes on. "This is often due to the fact that no contact has been established and the farmer's credit rating has not been determined. Banks prefer character and general business ability over any tangible security in making loans. A REPUTATION FOR THRIFT, INDUSTRY AND RELIABILITY IS THE BEST POSSIBLE ASSET FOR A MAN WANTING CREDIT.

"The first step in giving farmers better credit is to build up better contacts. This will require co-operation of county agents, farm organizations and the bankers themselves. But the banks cannot do it all. Effort toward a better acquaintance is necessary on the part of farmers. Frankness regarding their business affairs is essential."

The large part credit cost plays in agricultural conditions is pointed out by the department's report, which says North Carolina farmers contract debts amounting to more than $200,000,000 annually, and therefore a difference of only 1 per cent in the average interest rate would affect the net income from agriculture there approximately $2,000,000 each year. More than half the farmers in the areas investigated relied on merchandise advances, and the total merchant credit was nearly three times the short-term bank credit.

TERRELL WOULD RUN FOR GOVERNOR IF FINANCED

AGRICULTURAL COMMISSIONER SAYS HE CAN NOT RUN WITHOUT MONEY.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 8.—"Money, money everywhere, but not a penny to start a campaign for the governor's chair in Texas.

This is practically the cry of Geo. B. Terrell, commissioner of agriculture in replying to his firends who have been urging him to enter the gubernatorial campaign during the next state election.

Commissioner Terrell, in his statement today, said he would enter the race if he was provided with the funds with which to made a campaign; if not added that he would become a candidate for re-election to his present chair.

His statement in part follows:

"In response to friends in all parts of the state who have solicited me to make the race for governor and pledged financial support, I desire to say that I am profoundly grateful to them and wouuld immediately comply with their requests if I were financially able to bear the expenses of the campaign. Present political conditions, where it costs a fortune to make a successful race for governor, almost close the door of hope to a poor man, no matter what his qualifications may be. It is a sad commentary upon our boasted American freedom and equality of opportunity. A man without money has no opportunity to be elected governor, unless the people whom he would serve will finance his campaign. If I can secure sufficient pledges of financial support to finance my campaign by February 1, I will become a candidate for governor; otherwise I will be a candidate for re-election to the office of commissioner of agriculture.

"In response to many requests for my views on state issues, I have prepared the following statement which I trust will meet the approval of the next governor and the incoming legislature.

"The greatest question in the state today is that of an honest, efficient, economical administration of the state government and the securing of 100 cents worth of service for every dollar expended. The people of this imperial commonwealth are humiliated beyond expressions of more than $22-000,000 for this year with a deficiency of more than $4,000,000 and no visible means of meeting these obligations, with the state's credit impaired and our warrants hawked about in the marts of trade at a discount. No private enterprise can long survive when its expenditures exceed its income, and no government can survive it operated in the same reckless manner. The expenses of the state government have increased from $4,-364,607 in 1910 to $22,000,000 in 1024 without a corresponding increase in the value of the service. I have no respect for any candidate who knows nothing about the government, yet promises the people everything—even to cutting out half the expenses, or running the state government altogether on wind.

"We have 18 appointive boards and commissions spending $2,286,783 a year and eight elective departments that spend only $604,708.50 a year. One of these appointive commissions spends $619,260 a year or more than all the elective departments combined, and two others spend $603,980.-65, or practically the same amount spent by all elective departments. There are still other agencies and institutions that spend about $1,000,-00 annually in traveling over the state advising the people now to run their business. They exercise no police powers and cannot enforce the advice they give. It is high time the roller skates (salary and expenses) were clipped from under these agencies on wheels, and let them fall off their own dead weight. There is a perfect mania for spneding money, both publicly and privately, and public expenditures should be curbed by law and private expenditures checked by precept and example.

"We have the livestock commission, food and dairy commission, warehouse and marketing department, irrigation department, feed and fertilizer control work, all administered by appointive agencies separte and independent of each other. These agencies are all dealing with certain phases of agriculture and cannot logily beseparated and should be headed up under the department of agriculture, as they are in many states, in order to eliminate deplication, lessen overhead expenses, and secure more efficiency and economy in the service. This would save the state about $200,-000 per annum.

"The people favor abolishing these duplicating agencies and have demanded it twice through the Democratic platform, but the reason it has not been done is because of the influence of the "official lobby" on the payroll of the state, who do not want to be jarred loose from their jobs.

"Our present tax sytsem is a fraud against justice and should not be longer tolerated by an honest, intelligent people. The sources of taxation for state and local purposes should be separated by a constiutional amendment, providing for the collection of taxes to support the state government, and the institutions from incomes, inheritances, porduction taxes, leaving the counties free to fix their own rates and values for local purposes. This plan would abolish the 35-cent advalorem tax for general revenue, leave the state school tax just as it is and relieve the lands, homes, livestock and other visible property of about $10,000,000 anually, and place the tax upon other classes of property not now paying their just share of the taxes.

ROBSTOWN SHIPS SPECIAL TRAIN OF PLANTING SEED.

Robestown, Jan. 8.—What is believed to have been the first solid train load of cotton planting seed ever shipped by a sigle Texas breeder to one particular section of the state, was made from this point during the past week, and was consigned to points in the lower Rio Grande Valley. The shipment was made by S. Mastton Nixon, local breeder and grower of Blue Wagon staple cotton seed, and consited of a special train of seventeen carloads of his products.

The heavy movement of special staple planting seed shipped by local dealers to all sections of Texas and Oklahoma during the past season indicates that cotton growers are awakening to the merits and value of seed bred and multiplied in the famous Robstown district, where the per acre yield is phenomenally high and the fields entirely free of "dead" cotton. SENIOR CLASS PLAY ON WEDNESDAY JAN. 11TH

"A FULL HOUSE," COMEDY IN THREE ACTS BIDS FAIR TO LEAD ATTRACTIONS.

On Friday night, Jan. 11, at eight o'clock, the Senior Class of Yoe High will exhibit their unusual stage talent in the three act play, "The Full House." The scene in all three acts represents the drawing room of Mrs. Fleming's duplex apartment on Riverside Drive, New York City.

Parks, the English butler by Irvin Harlan, and Susie, a maid, played by Rosaline Baskin, will keep the house in an up roar of laughter by their clever tricks and sayings.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell, played by Richard Vest and Eloise Rogers, will give you a good example of a happy, loving young married couple.

It is worth your money alone to see Ned Pembroke, Jr., played by Clifford Barmore, make ardent love to Daphne Charters, acted by Lucile Camp.

Nicholas King, a mysterious stranger, played by Kenneth Keith, will keep the audience in breathless wonder by his sly, quick ways.

Mrs. Fleming, the owner of the apartment, played by Eugenia Wellace, will give you a good example of a "hard-boiled," haughty land-lady.

Vera Vernon, the vampire, played by Frances Looney, will give you excellent lessons in "vamping," girls, take not. Boys, take care.

Mrs. Pembroke, the owner of the stolen necklace, played by Lillie Kate Beckerman, is aristocracy personified. Her polite, quiet ways are a sharp contract to the wild excitement of the others.

Dougherty, a police sergant played by Glenn Flinn and Jim Mooney, acted by Sam Cheeves add quite a touch to the scene of action—don't fail to see them.

The students who represent the different characters in this play will put forth their best efforts to please the audience.

"A Full House," which has been carefully directed by L. Van Perkins is well worth your money, and a large crowd is expected.

College Station, Texas, Jan. 7.—Make the poultry keep the farmer and take the burden of keeping the poultry off the farmer is the slogan of E. O. Edson, extension poultry husband man of the A. & M. College of Texas, for 1924. "Four things are directly changeable to the hens for their failure to pay dividends," he said. "These are: Poorly Bred stock, too small flocks, poor housing conditions and poor feeding.

"If every farmer could be a breeder the problem of poor stock might be solved that way, but since this is impossible the best the farmer can do is to cull the flock, select outstanding layers to use in the breeding pens. Every county farm or home demonstration agent can supply the information for culling or instructions can be procured in bulletin form from the College.

"The average flock is far too small to even give a chance of return for effort and expense rendered. To pay, the farm flock must be of such size as to supply not only the home table but to afford something for sale to pay the feed bill. From 100 to 150 hens is the minimum to do this. It will be found just as easy to feed and care for a flock this size as one only half that size.

"There is no other animal on the farm that is more changeable with the weather than the hen. Hens may be laying heavily during the spring and if a norther strikes, egg production practically drops. If the birds had a warm comfortable house to protect them production would remain almost normal.

"And finally after the flock has been bred to lay, made of sufficient size to take care of consumption and still give a surplus for market, and taken out of the trees and off the fences and put into a comfortable house they must be fed the kinds of feed that it takes to make eggs. A hen cannot lay a half an egg. Hence she must have a balanced ration, one that will produce all the egg."

COLONEL TODD TO KEEP RIGID DISCIPLINE IN A. & M. STUDENT BODY.

College Station, Texas, Jan. 7.—Rigid insistence on the regulations promulgated in the College rules book was the policy outlined by Colonel C. C. Todd in assuming the position of commandant at the A. & M. College of Texas as supplemental to his responsibility of professor of military science and tactics on the resumption of school work immediately following the holidays. He urged the students to cease all child's play and keep themselves seriously applied to their course of study. Colonel Todd is a graduate of the College and a distinguished soldier. He succeeded Col. Ike S. Ashburn who resigned to become executive secretary of the A. & M. Ex-student's Association.

Collage Station, Texas, Jan. 7.—The A. & M. College of Texas finally overcame a lifelong shortage of water with the bringing in of a new deep well the past week. Appropriation for the digging of the new well was made by the legislature. It has a capacity of 500,000 gallons a day, which is the approximate daily requirement of the College.

The West Texas Utilities Company has endowed a scholarship in electrical engineering at the A. & M. College of Texas in recognition of the merit of A. & M. graduates, a number of whom are in the employ of the company.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Use Blue Star Remedy for Eczema, Itch, Tetter or Cracked Hands, Ring Worms, Chapped Face, Poison Oak, Sunburns, Old Sores or Sores on Children. It relives all forms of Sore Feet. For sale by all Druggists. tf

RESOLVE—

To Own a New Car This Year

Anyone who drives a car will say that the ownership of an automobile marks the advent of a larger measure of life.

It is the universal experience that when a man once owns an automobile he is never without one. He will go without almost anything else first.

The ownership of a car proves to any man beyond the shadow of a doubt that a car is a social and business necessity in the world of today.

Those who own cars will do well to investigate the possibilities for greater satisfaction in ownership offered by the 1924 Chevrolet.

Those who will buy the first car this year are cordially invited to come in and talk over the whole proposition of car purchase. There will be no pressure to buy.

BANKER-FARMER MEETING NOTES

A conference of bankers and farmers of the Fifth Federal Reserve District held recently at Raleigh, North Carolina, under the auspices of the American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission, adopted the following principles:

"In order to encourage and promote a safe, sane and constructive system of farm practices, the Banker and Farmer Conference of the Fifth Federal Reserve District would make the following recommendations with reference to the activities of farmers and bankers on which to concentrate efforts during the coming year:

"1. Encouragement of loans by bankers to bright and deserving young men and young women who wish to go to college to study agriculture and home economics.

"2. Promote in a rational and conservative way the economic increase in the productiveness of the soils of the district so that a larger unit of crop production may be secured. Small unit yields of necessity are expensive while moderate to large yields of crops are generally the cheapest. Larger yields per acre coupled with a reduction in the acreage, when advisable, should and usually will be more profitable and when handled properly will not lead to an over-production.

"3. Encouragement of a proper system of diversified farming in which farmers will grow as far as practical all the food and feed crops necessary for feeding the family and livestock of the farm, and to keep on the farms the requisite kinds and amounts of livestock best to meet the economic needs of farming.

"4. To formulate and put in motion definite plans for carrying out this program, it is urged that the Agricultural College of the District put a county agent in every county and that a banker-farmer conference be called to meet early in the fall at the agricultural college of each State."

NATION'S SAVINGS PLANT TRIPLED

Savings banks and banks having distinct savings departments, not counting branches, have grown in numbers in the United States from 5,376 in 1912 to 16,709 in 1922 or an increase of about 210 per cent in ten years, says the Savings Bank Division of the American Bankers Association. Savings deposits, it is pointed out, now comprise about one-half of all bank deposits of every description.

WHAT ADVERTISING DOES

America has the best life on this earth because it has the best advertised life, says Colonel W. G. Edens of the Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association. He goes on: "American health is the best in the world because American people are best informed in the ways and habits of health, largely through advertising. American business is the largest and most successful in the world because it uses advertising the most. American business men enlarge their business institutions in proportion as they advertise them. American buyers become more shrewd in spending their money in proportion as they read advertisements.

"The press of the United States is regarded by many as the most powerful of our institutions. It must be numbered with the schools and the churches as one of the trinity of most powerful creators of knowledge and patriotism.

"Advertising is what it is today largely because of the power and success of the daily paper. Nevertheless, it is true that the daily paper is as successful as it is today because of advertising.

"The banking business has been benefited largely by advertising within the last dozen or fifteen years. Banking institutions have done more advertising than ever before. They have installed advertising departments which acquaint their communities with facts formerly regarded in the light of institutional secrets. The banker publishes facts which build up confidence in his institution.

"The result has been that millions of people who formerly would not place their money in the care of bankers, but who hoarded it at home, entrusted it to friends, or invested it in wildcat speculations, now regard the bank as the safest place in the world. Hundreds of millions of dollars have been brought from their hiding places and placed in circulation, much to the advance of America and American institutions, as well as American business. Newspaper advertising has done more for American banks in the last dozen years than any other single agency."

TRUST COMPANY GROWTH

Nearly fourteen and one-half billions of dollars are the total present resources of trust companies in the United States. Institutions reporting number 2,478, as compared with 2,372 a year ago. The actual figures for the year ending June 30 last are $14,441,500,000 resources, as compared with $12,739,600,000 in 1922, representing a gain of $1,701,900,000.

NOTED RETAIL MERCHANT TO SPEAK AT SAN ANTONIO.

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 8.—San Antonio's self confessed obligation to sponsor and co-operate with its trade territory in tthe solution of its problems, has resulted in an invitation by the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, to fifty of the outstanding business men of Southwest Texas, r presenting as many communities, to meet in San Antonio on January 18th, to confer with San Antonio business men regarding commercial, agricultural and industrial conditions in the territory surrounding San Antonio.

William M. Ochse, Chairman of the Trade Extension Department, referring to the meeting, called attention to the fact that the latest edition of the Satistical Map published by Babson's Bureau, shows Southwest Texas as one of the most prosperous sections of the United States and in the market for prospective business.

He pointed out that the bank clearings had been greater in 1923 than any previous year, the post office receipts far above normal, the cotton crop the best in a decade, citrus fruits and vegetables finding a ready market the wool and mohair clip heavy and selling readily, and the heavy rains which have fallen in Southwest Texas providing assurances of good range and bumper crops for next year.

"Every business man in this territory," continued Mr. Ochse, "should be in a position to take advantage of this prosperity, and the conference in San Antonio will have as its chief aims the studying of conditions and the perfecting of plans looking toward the continued development and exploiation of this territory in the future."

Fred P. Mann of Devil's Lake, North Dakota, a Director of the United States Chamber of Commerce and one of the outstanding retail merchants of this Country, will be the principal speaker, in the business conferences and dicussions.

A very elaborate program of entertainment is being provided by the San Antonio Merchants, including a ride to the principal industries and points of interest in the city, and in the evening the visiting men will be guests at a banquet at the Gunter Hotel, to be given by the Chamber of Commerce.

COLLINS SCORES USE OF TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD

DALLAS ATTORNEY, IN OPENING OF GUBERNATORIAL DRIVE STRONG FOR EDUCATION

Dallas, Texas, Jan 8.—Justice to the public schools of Texas will be one of the main demands if V. A. Collins, Dallas attorney, becomes governor, he declared here today in opening his campaign in the Texas gubernatorial race.

Mr. Collins said in his speech here today that no legislature in the history of Texas had done justice to the schools of the state.

His speech, in part, follows:

"I might expatiate at great length on the subject of education—why we could offer no stronger argument than is made in Section 1, Article VII of the constiution of Texas, adopted in 1876:

"'A general diffusion of knowledge being essential to the prservation of the liberties and rights of the people, it shall be the duty of the legislature of the state to establish and make suitable provision for the support and maintenance of an efficient system of public free schools.'

"It was a command of the people to the legislature of Texas to provide not less than six months of public free school to the children of Texas, and to make such appropriations as would meet the constitutional requirement of efficiency.

"I assert that no legislature since the organization of our state under the constitution of 1876 has met its constitutional duty to the public schools of Texas.

"If the legislature will do its full constitutional duty towards the public schools of Texas, the people in the various districts will provide menas to add manual training and agriculture, which should be a part of the training of every boy and girl in Texas.

"I shall insist upon the legislature's doing its full constiutional duty to the public schools.

"I shall insist that it provide an efficient system of public free schools for at least six months in the year, and that will require from 25 to 50 per cent more than any state apportionment that has ever been made, and I shall insist that this appropriation is made per capita and that no part of it is ever offered as a reward to any district for any standard of achievement.

"Next to public education, the most important junction of government is to see that its laws are faithfully and impartially enforced.

"I deem it unessential to argue to this audience that all laws should be enforced. The good citizen does not have to be converted to that, and the bad citizen will not be converted.

"All laws in a republic like ours, where every citizen is equal before the bar of justice, are sacred and ought to be strictly obeyed whether one individually approved of them or not.

"Every citizen has the right to oppose the enactment of a law, or to advocate its repeal after it becomes a law, but no right thinking citizen believes that anyone has the right to ignore and disregard the law while it is the law.

"I stand for law enforcement without fear or favor.

"No man is so prominent or influential that I would not attempt to enforce his respect for the obedience to the law, and no man is so small or of so little importance that I would not exhaust my constitutional power and authority to protect his rights; but even in law enforcement there are constituional restrictions and limitations which I would respect as all good citizens respect the law.

"In our zeal for law enforcement we approve and applaud sometimes, even when the act of enforcement itself is a breach of the law or the consitution; but I believe under the better standard of government law is no less restriction on the officers of the government than it is on the private citizen.

"It is better for the ultimate end and purpose of government that every private citizen violate the law than that the governor of our state should breach one provision of our constitution which he swore to uphold.

"I would send rangers or the militia to help sheriffs in the enforcement of law, but I will not ake the warrant of arrest out of the hands of the man elected by the people, and put it in the hands of a ranger from a distant part of the state, if perchance enough respect of law is shown to procure a warrant of arrest at all.

"Rangers are good and useful men, but the constitution makes it the duty of others to enforce law in the different localities, and the law makes it the duty of the ranger to help them enforce the law and not to supersede them. If the elected officer refuses to enorce the law, he can be removed as the law new exists, or it may be made stronger if you desire, but even in that I would not go to the extreme some good men would go."

YOU ARE INTERESTED IN YOUR BOY OR GIRL.

One man asked another, "If you could give you children an educatoion or money, which would you choose for them?"

"Education," promptly answered the other man. "And a Business Education at that." If a young person has common sense and a business education, he can earn all the money he needs—and a position in life besides."

It matters not what line of work, or what profession one intends to follow, a business education is essential to success. Professional men often employ some one trained in business methods to look after their accounts, letter writing, etc., being too busy to attend to it themselves. But the professional man who doesn't know anything about business is at the mercy of his employees—and if they use slipshod methods he is the loser.

The business world today is crying for Trained office help. An efficient business trained young man or woman is as much in demand if not more so, than lawyers doctors, or any other professional man or woman; and the trained business executive has dozens of opportunities for advancement in a big way to one of the doctor or lawyer.

The business expert is in the confidence of his employers and learns angle of the business. Often there are openings for managers or heads of departments and the business expert is put in charge of some particularly responsible job.

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

J.D.DOBBINS The Man Who Saves You Money

Dodge Builds and Sells Million Cars in 9 Years

One million cars built and sold in the first nine years and 11 days of production.

This is the latest achievement of Dodge Brothers, Detroit, who thereby add another to their long list of notable contributions to the automobile industry, according to the Decker Motor Company, local Dodge dealers.

It is a world's record.

No other manufacturer, according to official figures shown by Dodge Brothers executives in support of their contentions, has achieved the 1,000,000 mark so soon after the completion of his first car.

Dodge Borthers began production on December 4, 1914. Car No. 1,000,000 rolled off the final assembly line December 13, 1923—nine years and 11 days later.

Strong public demand has given a constant impetus to Dodge Brothers production from the very start. At the outset they were oversold—and have been ever since, despite enlargements which have converted a factory of some 20 acres of floor space into a great industrial city employing 20,000 men and having a floor space of more than 100 acres. Only a few months ago a large new assembly plant was placed in operation, increasing plant capacity to approximately 100 cars a day and placing Dodge Brothers in a better position than ever before to build their share of the huge output scheduled for 1924.

While factory officials are pleased at the attainment of the 1,000,000 mark in so brief a period, they attach far greater importance to the fact that more than 90 per cent of the first 1,000,000 cars are still in service.

This is the point that interests the public, they maintain, for it is emphatic evidence that quality production has always had preference over quality production in Dodge Bros. Works, even when the most heroic measures were being adopted to increase plant capacity to meet the increasing demand.

It is also more important than mere numbers to the automotive industry as a whole, as it is indicative of a constant betterment of the product, as compared with the early days of experimentation and unreliability.

In almost every ton in the country and in many abroad, there are Dodge Brothers cars of 1915 and 1916 production, with hundreds of thousands of miles to their credit, still giving faithful daily esrvice. Naturally, the people in these communities know about the cars and point to them as evidence of a conscientious effort on the part of the manufacturers to build a product more and more worthy of general public acceptance.

"When you consider the number of cars lost annually through fire and other forms of accident, said a Dodge Brothers executive who is attending the automobile show, "this is really a remarkable figure. To have 90 per cent of 1,000,000, cars still in service after nine years—and anyone can prove this to his own, satisfaction by examining the registration records—can mean only one thing, and that is scrupulous care in manufacture.

"It is a well-known fact that most people never take care of their cars the way they should. It is particularly true in the case of Dodge Brothers cars that they are subjected to the most terrifc abuse, simly because they have the reputation of being able to withstand it. Knowing this, Dodge Brothers have never hesitated to buy the very finest of materials. In fact, there was no other choice, had there been any tendency to depart from the ideal of the founders. The car's reputtion demanded it.

"There are innumerable instances in which Dodge Brothers go beyond ordinary manufacturing practices in their effort to produce an exceptional car. It is this policy which is responsible for the present remarkable record—1,000,000 built, and over 90 per cent still in service."

P. L. Davis has returned from a visit in Waco and Plainview.

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Cameron people recommend Doan's Pills. Ask your neighbor. Be guided by their experience.

A. S. Moseley, Travis St., Cameron, says: "My kidneys were irregular in action and the trouble was gradually becoming worse. I commenced using Doan's Pills and before long, my back stopped aching and my rest at night was undisturbed. I couldn't expect any more pleasing results than I had from Doan's."

Seven Years Later, Mr. Moseley said: "I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone I hear complaining of kidney trouble. I use them occasionally as a tonic and they keep my kidneys in good order."

UNDERWOOD SCORES THE KLAN IN OPENING RACE

Dallas, Texas, Jan. 8.—Espousal of the candidacy of Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama for the Democratic presidential nomination will be waged in Texas on a clear cut platform demanding wise government, free government and good government for the United States it was definitely announced here following a pre New Year conference of thirty representative Texans who are advocating the nomination of Senator Underwood.

When an all day conference of the main body and three working committees had been concluded there was issued a statement of twelve declarations upon which the support of Texas men and women for Senator Underwood is sought. In addition to that labor the conference completed an executive committee of thirty-one members selected from the state senatorial districts and began the formation of an advisory body that will include 250 or more Texas men. A woman's executive committee and an advisory committee of women will be organized later.

Eleven of the twelve declarations adopted by the committee contain pronouncements well known to all believers in the Democratic party. They declared for strict obedience to organized government with clearly defined powers, for the individual rights of persons in matters of conscience and religious worship, for strict construction of the federal constitution and limitation of federal authority to those powers expressly accorded it, for complete adherence to the reserved rights of the states and the citizens thereof, for continued preservation of the three branches of government, legislative, executive and judicial and the complete integrity of each, against government by bureaus, board, commissions and surveys and favors the abolition of such manner of government, for loyalty to state and federal constitutions in all of their provisions, for elimination of self seeking in government, for respectful consideration of personal, religious and political rights of citizens, and finally in the eleventh declaration a reaffirmation of the ancient faith of the Democratic Party in its principles taken from the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

All of the twelfth declaration is concerned with the threat of attempted government by secret manipulations and through secret organization. It quotes and indorses the declaration of the National Democratic Platform of 1856 denouncing the efforts of the "Know Nothing Party" to wage a "crusade against Catholics and foreign born," and in connection quotes from the speech of Senator Underwood delivered in Houston last October together with an excerpt from a letter commenting on that speech.

Those quotations embodied in the declaration follow:

From the platform of 1856—

"That the foundation of this Union of States having been laid in, and its prosperity, expansion and preeminent example, in free government, built upon entire freedom in matters of religious concernment and no respect of person in regard to rank and place of birth, no party can justly be deemed National, constitutional or in accordance with American principles which bases its exlusive organization upon reilgious opinions and accidental birthplace. And hence a political crusade in the nineteenth century and in the United States of America against Catholic, and foreign born, is neither justified by the past history or the future prospects of the country nor in unison with the spirit of toleration and enlarged freedom, which peculiarly distinguish the American system of popular government."

From the Houston address:

"Government must be free and in the open and not behind closed doors. It is all right to have organizations for purpose of amusement; it is all right to have fraternal organizations and civic clubs; but when men have secret organizations for purpose of governing them, they are striking at the very principles of free government. I know that in Texas I have reached the home of real democracy. We citizens must grant to every man his individual rights and liberties as ong as he stays within the law but the law must not be made or executed by class or clan. I mean no reflection on any man or organization, but if there are men in organizations of that kind, they must give equal rights to all men who have a claim to American citizenship and real Democrats should not stay in an organization that denies that right to any man."

From a letter written by Senator Underwood to a Texas friend:

"My speech in Houston was directed directly at the Ku Klux Klan and all other secret cliques and organizations that seek to control the politics of this country behind closed doors and that are trampling upon the fundamental principles of the personal liberty, independence of action and freedom of thought of the great masses of American people."

PLANS BEING MADE FOR CIVILIAN TRAINING CAMP NEXT AUGUST.

Word has been received from the officers in charge of the C. M. T. C. for the 8th Corps Area, which includes the States of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico, that elaborate plans are now under way for the continuance of the Government summer camps for young men, which proved so popular during the last three summers.

Three thousand young men received an outing at Government expense during August of 1923. The young men were distributed to camps at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Fort Logan, Colorado and Fort Huachuca, Arizona. Each of the above mentioned camps were wonderful locations and every facility was made available for a very pleasant vacation. According to the present plans, the camps for 1924 are to be held at the same Army Posts as those of 1923, they being considered the very best for the purpose in the Eight Corps Area.

The branches of instruction offered will be the same as last year and will include instruction in Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, Engineers, Coast Artillery, Signal Corps and Air Service. There will be four courses offered, including a Basic Red Course, which gives fundamental training, but does not instruct in any particular branch of the service, featuring mostly study in citizenship; the Advanced Red Course, which gives basic instruction in branches desired; the White Course, for which graduates of last year's Advanced Red Course who were certified as eligible for admission to the White Course, are qualified, fitting students to be noncommissioned officers in the Organized Reserves or the National Guard; the Blue Course, for which graduates of last year's White Course who were certified as eligible for admission to the Blue Course, are qualified; the graduates of this course who are of the proper age and who passes the necessary educational qualifications are fitted for commissions in the Organized Reserve Corps.

The age limits are the same as for last year; 17 to 24 for the Red Courses; 18 to 24 for the White Courses; 19 to 24 for the Blue Courses. These age limits do not apply to those who attended a Citizens Military Training Camp in 1922 and 1923.

According to a recent decision from the Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., young men who have graduated from the Blue Course and who are eligible and qualified for commissions in the Officers Reserve Corps, but who have not been commissioned on account of being under age at the date of the opening of the Camp will be authorized to attend the Citizens Military Training Camp as Blue students. These graduates, while attending the camp, are recognized as acting officers and will be given as many of the responsibilities and pirvileges of an officer as found practicable.

Formal application blanks are now being distributed from headquarters of the Eighth Corps Area, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and young men of the proper qualifications will find it to their advantage to mail requests for applications to the C. M. T. C. office, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, at as early a date as passible. By having your application on file, you will be given the benefit of priority of receipt of same and will at an early date be definitely notified of your acceptance.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

Success or failure—to the farmer, tradesman, miner, business man, craftsman, professional man, means finance. Without finance these men would be like a sail boat on a furious sea without a rudder.

How often do we find the man with big ideas doing little things, and simply because he cannot connect his thoughts with that of finance.

A 30 Minute Ride Will Win You

Priced $170 lower, the New Essex Coach provides a larger, handsomer body, with even greater passenger comfort than the former Coach. And its 6-cylinder motor, built on Hudson patents give smoothness and performance distinction, heretofore exclusive to the Super-Six.

Qualities of Both Hudson and Essex

Its abilities are as exclusive in this field as Hudson's. Think of what that advantage means. And it has in full those hidden values that keep Hudson and Essex cars like new, after thousands of miles and years of service.

Everyone Calls It "Ideal Transportation"

Simple to keep in first class condition. Requires little attention. Lubrication for the most part is done with an oil can. Mileage on fuel, oil and tires is exceptional.

No car we ever announced has met with such a reception. You must be impressed as everyone has. You, too, will say: "the New Essex provides ideal transportation".

MRS ZACK MIDDLETON.

Mrs. Zack Middleton, a former Cameron woman, was buried in the Pebble Grove Cemetery near Maysfield, Sunday afternoon, January 6, 1924. Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the Cameron Baptist church, conducted the service which was attended by relatives and friends from this city and from the Maysfield and Jones Prairie communities, where deceased lived prior to her residence in Cameron.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Middleton was living with her son, John, at Mullin, Texas. Besides this son, she is survived by Joe E. Middleton of Cameron, Jesse Middleton of Waco and one daughter, Miss Annie Middleton of San Marcos. Her husband died in Cameron about ten or twelve years ago.

The family has the sincere sympathy of many friends in their bereavment.

DEATH OF GAUSE WOMAN.

GOOD DEALERS REMAINS CAR OWNERS BEST BET.

"Passing seasons serve only to emphasisize the fact that the backbone of car performance in any community is the good dealer," says G. C. White of the White-House Motor Co.

"There is food for thought in the fact that millions of finely adjusted and complicated machines are operated consistently under difficult conditions of duty hundreds and thousands of miles from the factories in which they were made.

"Inevitably, car performance is always better in the community where the greatest measure of real dealer responsibility exists. And the dealer who fails to adequately meet local needs of the car he sells is shirking an obligation to his home town.

Chevrolet owners in Milam county have come to know that we are fully aware of our responsibility as Chevrolet Dealers and they know when they need service they find we have already anticipated their needs and are ready to render instant service.
